Experience The Season

Through the Eyes and Hearts of Kids with Cancer

Walker Wagner is 7 years old and in Second Grade. He was diagnosed with Medulloblastoma, a brain cancer in September 2015. He finished his last round of radiation on September 15th! Walker spent months in treatment in Colorado and travels back and forth regularly from his home in Bozeman, Montana for follow up care. Walker is very brave, silly and loving boy. You will ALWAYS find him with his stuffed "Cow" who travels with him during all his treatments.
